Maurice Steenbergen a.k.a. Rotterdam Termination Source

Oldschool pioneer Maurice Steenbergen a.k.a. Rotterdam Termination Source (RTS) has gained fame in the 90's, even before the term "Hardcore" saw the light of day. His work is featured on 170 different CDs, LPs and cassettes, and he even has two entries in the Guinness Book of Hit Records. He is best known for his 1992 European hitsingle 'Poing', which is amongst the best selling house classics of all time. Maurice also produced tracks as and with Armageddon, Sperminator, Wicked on Wax, Evil Maniax and made several remixes for artists like Ruffneck, Human Resource, Lenny Dee and Paul Elstak. Back in those days he played at numerous big parties, like Nightmare In Rotterdam and Megarave and had international bookings in countries like England, Italy, Spain, Scotland,

Switzerland, Germany and the infamous Limelight Club in the USA.

After the rebirth of Hardcore, Maurice toured with T99 (Anasthasia) and Human Resource (known for their dance classic "Dominator") through Europe and America. During this tour they even headlined at HouseQlassics in Amsterdam in September of 2004. After the success of this tour he picked up DJ'ing once again, which resulted in great performances at parties like 15 Years Of Nightmare, Rotterdam Records 15th anniversary and the Parkzicht Reunion. Recently he also mixed the old-school and early Hardcore cd for the Rotterdam Records 15+1 Years compilation, which was very well received. His DJ sets are filled with the best Oldschool and Hardcore classics available, only playing records from before 1998 and making you really take a trip down memory lane.
